Legal notice

The software used performs calculations on the basis of more than the two decimal places displayed. Minor discrepancies cannot be ruled out due to further calculations using published results.

The value of a unit is calculated by dividing the entire value of the investment fund inclusive of its income by the number of units. The total value of the investment fund is calculated on the basis of the current market prices of the securities, money market instruments and subscription rights in the fund plus the value of the fund's financial investments, cash holdings, credit balances, receivables and other rights net of its payables. That value will be calculated by the custodian bank.

The net assets are calculated in accordance with the following principles:

- a) The value of assets quoted or traded on a stock exchange or other regulated market shall be determined, in principle, on the basis of the most recently available price.
- b) Where an asset is not quoted or traded on a stock market or another regulated market or where the price for an asset quoted or traded on a stock market or another regulated market does not appropriately reflect its actual market value, the prices provided by reliable data providers or, alternatively, market prices for equivalent securities or other recognized market valuation methods shall be used.

Raiffeisen KAG uses the method developed by OeKB (Österreichische Kontrollbank AG) to calculate the fund's performance, on the basis of data provided by the custodian bank (where payment of the redemption price is suspended, using indicative values). Some costs – the subscription fee (not exceeding 3.50 % of the invested amount) and any redemption fee (not exceeding 0.00 % of the sold amount) – are not included in the performance calculation. Depending on their concrete value, they will reduce a performance accordingly. Past results do not permit any reliable inferences as to the future performance of the fund.

Dear unitholder,

Raiffeisen Kapitalanlage-Gesellschaft m.b.H. is pleased to present its semi-annual fund report for Raiffeisen-Fund-Balanced for the reporting period from Jun 1, 2017 to Nov 30, 2017. The accounting is based on the price calculation as of Nov 30, 2017.

Fund investment policy report

In June 2017, the short- to medium-term tactical strategy in the Raiffeisen-Fund-Balanced did not include any distinctive equity and bond positionings. The stronger positioning of high-yield bonds was closed at the beginning of the month and emerging market hard currency bonds were bought. In early July 2017, equities were reduced slightly. At the same time, commodities were added to the portfolio. This addition was maintained until the end of November 2017. The weighting of the emerging market hard currency bonds was also reduced at the beginning of July 2017 while European government bonds were bought. At this time, high-yield bonds were reduced since they were no longer considered promising. Due to the short- to medium-term orientation of the Raiffeisen-Fund-Balanced, equities were reduced further in early August 2017. The same level was still maintained in October 2017. In early November 2017, small equities purchases were made, although equities retained their prudent positioning in the Raiffeisen-Fund-Balanced under its tactical strategy. The fund bought USD after the currency's substantial drop in August 2017. In general, under various strategies (short- to long-term) over the reporting period, various bonds with higher yield expectations and/or better risk-return ratios were temporarily preferred to nominal government bonds on a recurrent basis. In the equities segment, over time, there was a preferred weighting of emerging markets vs. developed markets and Japan vs. the USA. Furthermore, there were some adjustments in the long-term orientation of the Raiffeisen-Fund-Balanced in the 2nd half of October 2017.
